二、英文作文 It was the first day of the winter vacation. The sun shone and the weather was warm and comfortable. Vivian Wang and her family had been looking forward to a trip after working hard for the past months. They woke up to the alarm clock in the early morning, quickly got dressed, and had their breakfast. Humming songs in a delightful mood, the Wang family get their baggages prepared and set off for their trip. Vivian couldn't wait any more to start her trip with her family! On the way to the airport, the Wang family was caught in a traffic jam. So aweful the traffic was that they could hardly move forward. Panic and restless, they had no alternative but to stay in car waiting. Two 背面可繼續作签. hours later, they finally arrived at the airport. Out of their anticipation, there was a protest against the airline company. Hundreds of thousands of people gathered at the airport so as to express their requirement for a pay raise. It never came to the Wang family that their long-expecting trip will end up being cancelled due to such a fierce strike. Despite their disappointment, Mr. Wang, as a positive person, cheered his family up. Instead of feeling upset, the family decided to restart their winter vacation in the Young-Ming Mountain, which was their favorite attraction in Taiwan. Admiring the beautiful cherry blossoms and the magnificent bird-looking view, Vivian and her family forgot about all the unhappy things happened before and felt an incredible sense of relief.
