

Living without worrying about the budget is such a wonderful gift for my grandmother because she has devoted herself to raising family since the age of eighteen. Thus, I will definitely share the chance with grandmother, giving her a day without any burden. My grandmother truly plays a vital role in my life. Her life experiences teach me so many precious lessons that are never mentioned in my textbooks. As far as I am concerned, though my grandmother is a mere illiterate, she is my mentor.

Being a green thumb, my grandmother is fond of gardening. As a result, I will take her to Fushan botanic garden. The diverse kinds of plants and breathtaking scene will certainly impress her. Then, I will go shopping with her, buying lots of beautiful clothes for her. Taking her to having spa and a nice restaurant is also in my plan. After all, she has suffered and toiled for whole life. I sincerely hope she could lead a relaxing, happy life ever after.
